The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 21. to Tuesday April 24. 1744.

St. James's, April 24.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Sligo, having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, at the Aſſizes holden for the County of Sligo, the 22d Day of March, 1743.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, having always been unalterably attached to the Houſe of Hanover, both before and ſince its Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, beg Leave to expreſs our great Abhorrence of the inſolent and black Deſign of the Enemies of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to invade theſe Kingdoms, and introduce a foreign Power, by endeavouring to place a popiſh Pretender upon your Throne.

Though we are not ſurprized that a haughty and perfidious Nation, who have been long aiming at Univerſal Monarchy, and conſequently muſt be natural Enemies to your Majeſty and Kingdoms, who holds the Balance, and are the chief Support of the Liberties of Europe, ſhould form Schemes deſtructive of your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, Religion, Liberties and Properties of all your loyal Proteſtant Subjects.

And being convinced they muſt have Encouragement from ſome of our ſecret Enemies at Home, otherwiſe they would not preſume to make ſo daring an Attempt,

We can't ſay whether we more deteſt the Wickedneſs, or pity the Folly of thoſe, who, tired with your Majeſty's powerful, yet gentle Government, prefer Slavery to Freedom, a Pretender, bred up in the Idolatry and Superſtition of Rome, to a Prince, who more than once ventured his Life in ſupporting Liberty, in Oppoſition to popiſh Tyranny and Slavery.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that at this critical Conjuncture, we will exert ourſelves in our ſeveral Stations, to defeat the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies, and venture our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, in Support of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and for the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and others, of the County of Denbigh, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Myddelton, of Chirk Caſtle, Eſq; (in the Abſence of Edward Jones, Eſq; High Sheriff of the ſaid County, who was indiſpoſed) being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty's was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and others, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, held at Denbigh, for the County of Denbigh, on Tueſday the Third Day of April, 1744.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IN this critical Conjuncture, when your Majeſty's Dominions have been inſolently threatned with an Invaſion from France, when the idle Pretenſions of an abjured Popiſh Bigot are revived by that perfidious Power, in Defiance of the moſt ſolemn Treaties, and, in Conſequence of theſe Inſults, actual War is denounced by the French King, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, fully ſenſible of the great Bleſſing we enjoy under a Free and Proteſtant Government, humbly beg leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours, and chearfully ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty's juſt and undoubted Title to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and to ſecure the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, and preſerve our happy Conſtitution, tion, as eſtabliſhed by Law, in Oppoſition to all your Enemies Foreign and Domeſtick.

The following Addreſs of the Tinners of the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Thomas Pitt, Eſq; Lord Warden of the Stanaries, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Tinners of the County of Cornwall, now met at our Quarterly Coynage, take this firſt Opportunity to acknowledge the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy, both in our Civil and Religious Rights, under your Majeſty's Government, the Senſe of which moves us with the utmoſt Indignation and Reſentment at the late inſolent and daring Attempts of the ever perfidious Enemy of this Kingdom, and now followed with a Declaration of War againſt your Majeſty.

We therefore moſt humbly preſume, with hearty Zeal for the Proſperity of our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in your illuſtrious Houſe, to approach your Majeſty, by our Lord Warden, to make tender of our beſt Services for ſupporting and defending your Royal Perſon and Family in the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, againſt the Attempts of all Enemies whatever; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that in ſuch a Cauſe, we are ready to riſque our Lives and Fortunes, not doubting but to give Proofs, on all Occaſions, that the ancient Corniſh Loyalty and Valour, ſtill animates the Hearts of Corniſh Men.

Lady-Day Coynage, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Capital Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Burrough of Camelford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Inchiquin, and Charles Montagu, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Capital Burgeſſes and Freemen of the Burrough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, in a due Senſe of all the Bleſſings of Liberty and Religion, of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, being ſecure under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, deſire Leave, in the ſtrongeſt Terms we can, to declare to your Majeſty our Indignation at any Attempt, the Succeſs of which may end in depriving us of thoſe Bleſſings. And as we are ſenſible the Loſs of all that is dear to us as Britons and Proteſtants would immediately follow, ſhould the Pretender have ſucceeded in his late Attempt, and the Invaſion projected by France and Spain have taken place, we beg Leave to expreſs our juſt Abhorrence at ſo wicked, but at the ſame Time ſo ill contrived an Attempt, the Shame of which has fallen upon its Authors and Contrivers.

As God has often almoſt miraculouſly appeared for us in many ſignal Deliverances of this Nation from Popery and Tyranny, from that Slavery of our Souls and Bodies, which formerly Spain, ſince that France, have endeavoured to impoſe upon us, ſo now France and Spain join together in this wicked Deſign, we hope ſtill for the ſame divine Protection, that God will defend your ſacred Perſon as he has done already more than once in the Day of Battle, and that by preſerving your Perſon and Government, he will alſo preſerve to us that Proteſtant Faith of which you are the Royal and Zealous Defender, and will enable you effectually to aſſert thoſe civil Rights and Liberties, which under your Majeſty we ſo fully enjoy.

And as our very Being, as a Church and Nation, as a free People, and a Proteſtant Church, depends upon the Proteſtant Succeſſion being ſettled and continued in your Royal Family, we ſhall, in our ſeveral Capacities, oppoſe any Attempt that ſhall be made to ſubvert or weaken an Eſtabliſhment, that is ſo neceſſary to the Peace and Welfare of every Britiſh Subject.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fourteenth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty four.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Mitchell, and Coulſon Fellowes, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by ſeveral of the Clergy and Gentry of the ſaid County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, and one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon.

Moſt

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Acknowledgments for the Poſſeſſion of our Civil and Religious Liberties, which we ſo fully enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that Gratitude, as well as Duty, will always engage us to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Royal Perſon and Family; eſpecially at this Time, when we ſee, with Indignation and Contempt, that a Prince, remarkable for Perfidiouſneſs in the Violation of the moſt ſolemn Treaties (whoſe Subjects groan under the moſt abject Slavery) not only attempts to impoſe a popiſh Pretender upon a brave and free People, but alſo endeavours, by an unjuſt Declaration of War, to diſturb the Peace, Welfare, and Trade of your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

May the ſame Succeſs your Majeſty was bleſſed with in the glorious Victory of Dettingen, (ſo peculiarly owing to your Perſonal Bravery and Conduct) attend your Majeſty in all your Undertakings againſt France, and againſt all other Supporters of the Pretender and his Adherents: May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and may your Royal Houſe, which has lately received an additional Strength, by the Marriage of the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark, and by the Birth of another Prince to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, continue the Bleſſings we now enjoy to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melkſham, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Robert Long, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives for the County of Wilts, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melkſham, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melkſham, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with our moſt humble and hearty Thanks, for the many Bleſſings we have long enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt mild, gentle, auſpicious and happy Government; and to expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's great Care for the Welfare of your People, the Good of their Trade in general, as well as for the paternal Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn for our Security, and the Good of our Manufacture in particular.

And at the ſame Time we expreſs the ſtrong Senſe we have of the Felicity, Freedom, and Security we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, we aſſure you (Royal Sir) that we find our Boſoms ſwell with all the Heat of Indignation, and Aſperity of Reſentment, when we reflect, that there could exiſt ſuch Inſolence in your Majeſty's Enemies Abroad, in Concert with ſuch diabolical Venom and Ingratitude in any of your Majeſty's Subjects at Home; that they ſhould dare to think of invading and conquering us, and impoſing on us an abjured Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown and Dominions: A deteſted Bigot, bred up in the Principles of Civil and Religious Tyranny, from whom we can expect nothing but to ſee our pure and holy Religion ſunk into Idolatry, our Liberties trampled upon, and our Conſtitution overturn'd; ourſelves and Poſterity become Slaves to an arbitrary Uſurper; our Country a Province to France, and a Tributary to Rome; our Commerce deſtroyed, and our Trade loſt.

What Valour muſt not ſuch Apprehenſions inſpire! What Abhorrence and Deteſtation muſt not ſuch Indignities and Affronts excite in the Heart of every true Briton! Nothing could have fired the one to greater Fury, nor raiſed the other to greater Odium, than the finding the dark and clandeſtine Machinations of our Foreign and Domeſtick Enemies, ſucceeded by the French King's Declaration of War againſt your Majeſty, couched in Terms injurious to your Majeſty's Honour, and affrontive to the Britiſh Nation; full of falſe Accuſations, groundleſs Suggeſtions, ſcandalous Aſſertions, frivilous Pretences, and unjuſt Inſinuations, preceded by a Conduct treacherous and deceitful, in direct Violation of the moſt ſolemn Treaties and Religious Engagements, Royally pledged, and Perfidiouſly broken.

Thus fired with Indignation, excited with Abhorrence, prompted by Duty, animated by Affection, engaged by Intereſt, and compelled by Gratitude, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that to preſerve your Rights, and our own invaluable Privileges and Happineſs, under your Royal Protection and paternal Adminiſtration, and to revenge the Affronts and Indignities offered, and Injuſtice done us, we are ready, at all Times, to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes.

We ſhould be wanting in Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty, and to our own Intereſt, ſhould we refuſe to follow the illuſtrious Example of your Majeſty, and your Royal Son, who boldly traverſed the Field of Death, in Defence of our Rights, the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe, at the ever memorable Battle of Dettingen; where you triumphed over the French King's Houſhold Troops, who fled before your Arms with Precipitation and Confuſion; a happy Omen of future Conqueſts, and a juſt Chaſtiſement by the Aid of that all-ſeeing Power, who avenges broken Faith: And as Heaven ſent its Angel to ſheild your Royal Head in the Day of Battle, ſo it ſent its Winds to confound the late Attempts of our Enemies; for he blew, and they were ſcattered; and inſtead of enjoying an hoſtile Triumph on our Shoars, they ſaw Wrecks, Deſtruction and Death on their own; to us pleaſing Prognoſticks of Divine Favour and Protection.

We farther beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as we feel our own Breaſts warmed with Loyalty and Affection, we ſhall always make it our Endeavour to confirm the great Numbers employed by us in our Manufacture, in the ſame Sentiments.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy Life and Happineſs; that you may continue the Darling of your People, and the Terror of your Enemies; and that a Branch of your Royal and illuſtrious Houſe may never be wanting to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to the lateſt Generations, is the ardent Prayer of, (may it pleaſe your Majeſty) your Majeſty's

Moſt Humble, Loyal and Dutiful
Subjects and Servants.

Naples, March 31, N. S. M. de Gages, at his Arrival on the Borders of the Abruzzo, cauſed his Troops, conſiſting of about 13000 Horſe and Foot, to enter into the Kingdom of Naples: They were joined by 25 Battalions and 15 Squadrons of the King of Naples's Forces, and are advantageouſly diſtributed in three Diviſions, drawing a Line from the River Tronto to the Garigliano, ſo as to be nigh at Hand to obſerve and oppoſe any Attempt the Auſtrians ſhould make to enter into the Kingdom of Naples. On the 25th their Majeſties and the young Princeſs, after having been complimented by the City in a Body, the Foreign Miniſters, Nobility, and the two Cardinals Spinelli and Orſini, and ſaluted by a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Fortreſſes and Gallies, ſet out hence, attended by their reſpective Courts, and eſcorted by the Horſe Regiment Royal Bourbon, the Life-Guards, and the two Regiments of Italian and Swiſs Foot Guards, conducting the Military Caſh, 'tis ſaid, with about Two Millions and three hundred thouſand Ducats in Specie. On the 26th their Majeſties ſeparated at Capoa, the Queen and young Princeſs proceeded to Gaeta, and the King towards Abruzzo: He ſtopped on the 28th at Venafro, to eaſe the March of the Troops that followed him, as he had received Notice from M. de Gages, that the Auſtrians remained ſtill at Fermo, &c. On the 31ſt he arrived at Rocca del Raſo, and on the 6th Inſtant it was expected he would arrive at Chieti at the Head of his Army. The two Battalions Militia, one of Salerno, the other of the County of Molis, declining to march, mutinied againſt their Officers, and out of the firſt above 300 Men have deſerted; they are now without Arms at Capoa, many of them are under a cloſe Confinement, againſt whom a rigorous Proceſs is forming.

Florence, April 7. We are informed from Bologna, that Reinforcements continue to paſs daily through that City from Germany to the Auſtrian Army. Prince Lobkowitz, 'tis ſaid, has ſettled an Allowance of 90,000 Crowns per Month from the Provinces of Marca, Umbria, and Urbino, towards the Supply of Forrages, and other Neceſſaries for his Troops: His Army continues at Fermo and Macerata, in Expectation of Orders from the Court of Vienna, as to their Proceedings.

Admiralty

Admiralty Office, Feb. 25, 1743.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are pleaſed to direct, that ſuch diſabled or worn out Seamen who have been minuted to be received into the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office on Tueſday the 1ſt of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning. Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, April 5, 1744.

Notice is hereby given, that a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer, and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Thurſday the 26th of this Inſtant April, at Juſtice Hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

Tho. Corbett.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

The following Orders and Inſtructions having been given to the Colonels and Recruiting Officers of his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, are publiſhed for the Information of the Commiſſioners and others authorized to put in Execution an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the ſpeedy and effectual Recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines.

Complaints having been made by the Commiſſioners appointed by the Act now in Force, for the ſpeedy and effectual Recruiting his Majeſty's Land Forces and Marines, that the Officers appointed for the Receiving of the preſſed Men and Volunteers, have not duly attended their Meetings, I am commanded to acquaint you, it is his Majeſty's expreſs Will and Pleaſure, that you do take Care that the Officers of your Regiment do attend the next and all other Meetings in the Counties and Places to which your Regiment is appointed.

And as other Regiments are allotted to the ſame Counties with your Regiment, the Officers you ſhall appoint for this Service, upon their Arrival in thoſe Counties, are to ſettle and agree with the Officers of the other Regiments, how to diſperſe and divide themſelves, ſo that the Commiſſioners be every where attended, in order to the Receiving from them ſuch Men as ſhall be by them delivered over from Time to Time.

I am farther to acquaint you, that all the Recruits that ſhall be ſo delivered by the Commiſſioners, be received by your Officers, although ſuch Recruits ſhould exceed the Number wanting for your Regiment, ſuch Supernumeraries being afterwards to be diſpoſed of for his Majeſty's Service, for whom the Officers ſhall be fully reimburſed the Charge they ſhall be at thereby.

And for as much as Certificates are by the ſaid Act required to be, by the ſaid Commiſſioners, tranſmitted to this Office, of the Perſons by them levied, and to whom delivered, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that you give it as an Inſtruction to the Officers you employ on this Service, that they take Care to procure Duplicates thereof, which are to be lodged in the Hands of the Agent of the Regiment, to be at all Times forthcoming on any Occaſion that may happen.

And as the Commiſſioners are, by the ſaid Act, directed to uſe their beſt Judgment and Endeavours, that the Soldiers by them levied ſhall be ſuch able bodied Men as are fit to ſerve his Majeſty; you are to give it as a farther Inſtruction to your ſaid Officers, that where they ſhall find a reaſonable Cauſe to object to any Man on Account of his Age, or being lame, burſten under-ſiz'd, or any other Ways unfit for his Majeſty's Service, that then, in Caſe they ſhall be obliged by the Commiſſioners to receive ſuch Man, they be careful to make their Objections openly upon the Place, and endorſe ſuch their Objections on the Back of the Duplicates they are to ſend up, atteſted, if it may be, by two Witneſſes. They are likewiſe to be careful not to receive any Iriſhmen or known Papiſts.

By his Majeſty's Command,
WILLIAM YONGE.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

It is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that all the Recruiting-Officers now in England, or who ſhall come to England, belonging to the Iriſh Regiments, do repair to the Counties of Weſtmoreland, Lancaſter, Cheſter, Salop, Hereford, Nottingham, Stafford, Gloceſter, Worceſter, North and South Wales; and that they do act in Conformity to the Inſtructions for the Recruiting Officers, publiſhed in the Gazette, and other Papers, by his Majeſty's Command. By his Majeſty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

This is likewiſe to give Notice, that where the Commiſſioners ſhall have levied one Number of Volunteers and Preſs'd Men, and no Officers ſhall appear to receive them, the ſaid Commiſſioners are deſired to return to the Secretary of War, a Liſt of their Names, diſtinguiſhing the Volunteers and Preſs'd Men: In which Caſe Orders will be immediately ſent to the Officers of the neighbouring Regiments to receive them.
Will. Yonge.

London, April 21, 1744.

As the Regiments in Gibraltar, Minorca, and the Weſt-Indies, as well as ſeveral of the Regiments of Marines, have not a ſufficient Number of Non-commiſſioned Officers or private Men in England, to receive and ſecure the Volunteers and Preſſed Men in the ſeveral Places where they are directed to attend the Commiſſioners; My Lord Stair orders, That on Application from any Officer belonging to thoſe Regiments that is employed on the Recruiting Service, the Officer commanding in any Quarter or Cantoonment ſhall furniſh the Recruiting Officer with one Serjeant or Corporal, and ſuch a Number of Men as ſhall be neceſſary to aſſiſt him in receiving and conveying his Volunteers and Preſſed Men to the neareſt Place where ſuch Recruits can properly be ſecured, Provided, there is not then one Non-commiſſioned Officer, and a Party already detach'd from each Company on that particular Service.

This Order is to extend to the Dutch, as well as the Britiſh Troops.

C. Elliſon, Dep. Adj. General.

London, March 20, 1743.

The Commiſſioners appointed for Diſtributing the Moiety of the Prizes taken from the Spaniards hereby give Notice, that they will meet on Friday the 30th Inſtant, and every Friday following, in the Forenoon, at their Office in Aldermary Church-yard in Bow-Lane, to enter the Claims of thoſe who ſuffered by Spaniſh Guarda Coſta's or other Ships, between the 2d of June 1721, and the 10th of July 1739, and who are intitled to a Share in the Diſtribution to be made purſuant to the ſaid Commiſſion; whereby it is provided, That with Reſpect to Loſſes before the Treaty of Seville, bearing Date the 9th of November 1729, no Perſons are intitled to any Share, whoſe Claims were not entered, and Proofs exhibited: And with Reſpect to Loſſes ſubſequent to the ſaid Treaty, no Perſons are intitled to any Share, whoſe Loſſes were not repreſented on or before the 30th of June 1743, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Commiſſion directs. And that daily Attendance at the ſaid Office will be given to receive the ſaid Claims.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,
